Kunooz Oman appoints new CFO

Kunooz Oman, one of the country's leading companies engaged in the mining quarrying, transportation and construction materials sectors has appointed a new CFO to join its fold of top management.

Sachin Bawa brings the experience and expertise of over three decades in Finance and general management in India and the Middle East. A Fellow member of The Institute of Chartered Accountants of India, he has held senior management positions in Oman in Industry and Banking since 1997.

Since 2014, he has been advisor to key business houses on greenfield projects while simultaneously overseeing his own greenfield ventures in education and healthcare. Prior to that he was the CEO of Izz Group of Companies, CFO of the Shanfari Group of Companies and a Senior Manager at Bank Muscat. His achievements include re-engineering of corporates, turnarounds, amalgamations and mergers, demergers, managing and advising key business negotiations and successfully executing them.

He has held board positions in various SAOC and SAOG companies and was nominated as a Director on the Board of Indian Schools in Oman by the Ambassador of India in 2011.

"His experience and expertise is valuable to Kunooz Oman and we see this as a way forward in our future to bring people with the right skills to help chart a successful future." Said Dean Cunningham CEO of Kunooz Oman.

"I am delighted to join Kunooz Oman. It's an exciting opportunity to be part of Kunooz Oman, and I look forward to collaborating and sharing in the company's journey." said Sachin Bawa.
